GLEN ALLEN HAS MADE A SPLEN-

GLEN ALLEN HAS MADE A SPLENdid beginning, and there is every indication that its development will be vigorous and constant. It possesses in embryo those essential elements of growth—a commerce and manufactures of its own, together with transportation facilities and a good back country to draw from—and is is showing the capacity to utilize those forces. In a word, it has outgrown old fogyism and is addressing itself to the needs and opportunities of the bour.

BEING ON THE SHORT LINK WHICH unites the great railroad systems of the South with those of the North, Gien Allen is in close touch with all sections of the country. Its publishing houses run more than twenty steam printing presess, which have business relations with every city in the band. There is felegraph nave business relations with every city in the land. There is telegraph service day and night. The time by local trains is 22 minutes to Richmond, and the commutation fare is 12 cents. A brief description of this new centre of activity may be had by sending your address to JOHN CUSSONS, Glen Allen, Va.

CUSSONS, Glen Allen, Va.

GLEN ALLEN'S PRESENT DEVELOPment includes the opening of new avenues, with lawns and parks and woodland rambles: also, a handsome church, a pretty station, a dozen passenger trains, a graded school, a modern dairy, six daily mails, three first-class stores, an excelsior factory and a bank. There is also Forest Lodge; a charming resort of a hundred rooms, which will soon be opened to the public, and adjoining the Lodge there is a spacious park, which contains probably the handsomest range of wild dear in America.
